Chapter 1 by DREAMER

It was a wonderful day, A girl was going to meet a guy first time a guy who was her first love and also the last love, she has talk with him in messages and calls also has seen his photos but she was going to meet him face to face first time. When the boy was going to meet a girl whom he has never seen and whom he loves a lot without being feared about her look.

It was Friday afternoon when they decide to meet. Their story was quite different from other love stories. They get attached with the purity of each others heart. They became lover of good heart instead of being lover of good look. There are few peoples now a days in the world who can love like them.

Girl was quite afraid of by thinking of that boy's first expression by seeing her, because she was having a skin patches. She was loving him too much no matter how he is, but was afraid that what if that boy get upset after seeing her. That was the only reason that she was avoiding to meet him and she didn't even share her photo to him. That boy was loving a girl without seeing her. Finally one day she gathered all her strength and decide to do what her heart says instead of listening her mind.

Boy was reached half an hour earlier at that spot and the girl was going to arrive...
